

“Here and there, wherever the sun is born and dies.”

GIOVANNI VERGA AND US

with Professor Andrea Manganaro,
University of Catania, member of the Giovanni Verga Foundation

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 18

4:30 P.M. • BOSLER HALL, ROOM 208

Presentation in Italian with translation by Italian senior seminar students.

Professor Manganaro will discuss Giovanni Verga, Italy's most important novelist of the late 19th century. His two masterpieces, The House by the Medlar Tree and Mastro-Don Gesualdo, are set in Sicily at the time of mass migration to the Americas and depict the conflicts caused by the emergence of modern capitalism.

Refreshments will be served following the presentation

Dickinson