Hi Mary Ann. How are you?

I know I (1 - not write) [] for at least six months, but while I (2 - watch) [] a documentary on TV last night, you suddenly (3 - come) [] to my mind. The documentary was about open-air festivals such as Glastonbury, which I (4 - remember) [] you used (5 - love) [] going to in the days before Covid. (6 - you think) [] we (7 - ever have) [] the chance to go to these places again? The programme seemed to suggest that later on this year we (8 - be able to) [] resume those visits. (9 - you plan) [] on going to Glastonbury this summer? If so, I (10 - really like) [] to come with you this time. I (11 - always be) [] curious about these festivals, but in previous years I just (12 - not want) [] to take the time off work. But recently Joe and I (13 - argue) [] about things we might do after we (14 - retire) [] and Glastonbury is on the top of my list. However, I (15 - not even think) [] about going there before I watched the documentary, so I'm glad I got to see it! Anyway, let me know your plans, and a big hug to everyone in the meantime.

Love, Marian
